Isle of Wight Observer – 7 March 1874

NEWPORT.

FUNERAL. – The remains of the late Mr. Broadley Wilson Way were interred at the Newport Cemetery on Friday, the burial services being impressively read by the Rev. G. H. Connor, vicar and rural dean. Amongst those who followed the deceased to the grave were the Mayor (W.B. Mew. esq.), T.P. Mew, esq., Revs. H. Hughes, sen., and H. Hughes, jun. Most of the tradesmen partially closed their establishments as a mark of respect to the deceased.
