

Arthur Harry Daniel Howard

Isle of Wight Country Press – 22 August 1942

NEWPORT

Death of Mr. A. J. D. Howard. – Much regret has been aroused among his many friends by the death, at the early age of 26, of Mr. Arthur Harry D. Howard, of 2 Trafalgar-road, who was for about 12 years an assistant at Mr. S. A. Porter's hairdressing establishment, where he was held in much esteem by patrons. The deceased young man had been suffering from heart disease since January. He was, until his health broke down, a member of the "Smarties" concert party, and his pleasing baritone singing was a popular feature of their entertainments. The funeral will be to-day (Saturday), service in the Quay-street Methodist Church at 2 p.m.

Isle of Wight Country Press – 29 August 1942

NEWPORT

The Late Mr. A. Howard. – The funeral of Mr. Arthur Howard, of 2 Trafalgar-road, whose death at the early age of 26 was recorded last week, took place on Saturday, a service being held in the Quay-street Methodist Church and the interment in St. Paul's Cemetery. The Rev. Ezra E. W. Ramm officiated and Mrs. S. A. Porter at the organ accompanied the singing of two hymns. The mourners were Mr. and Mrs. H. Howard (parents), Mr. and Mrs. J. Bullock (brother-in-law and sister), Messrs. W. and L. Howard (brothers), Mr. and Mrs. F. Howard (grandparents), Mr. F. Burt, Mrs. F. Hayward, Mr. and Mrs. A., and Mr. and Mrs. S. Howard (uncles and aunts), and Mr. C. Woodford and Miss L. Bartlett (cousins). A large number of friends attended, including Mr. S. A. Porter and the staff of the Pyle-street hairdressing establishment, where deceased had been employed for 12 years, Mr. W. H. Downer, T.C. (local Tent of Rechabites), and Mr. G. Clark. There were over 40 lovely floral tributes, including those from Mr. Porter and staff and Mr. H. Howard's employers (Messrs. R. W. and A. W. Bull). Messrs. Hamilton and Son made the arrangements.

Transcription by Tony Barton for the Friends of Newport and Carisbrooke Cemeteries, © 2020
<https://www.foncc.org.uk>