THE LATE MR. J. LININGTON

The death occurred on Monday of Mr. Joseph Linington, aged 52, of 22 Cross Lane. Mr. Linington was the fifth son of the late Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Linington of the Eagle Inn. He was apprenticed as a plumber to the late Mr. E. W. Tyler, and on the retirement of his mother, took over the inn 27 years ago. During the last war Mr. Linington was employed by the Town Council on maintenance work and was a member of the Home Guard and the Fire Service. He leaves a widow and one son. At the funeral at St. Paul's Church on Thursday the Grocers' Association, of which Mr. Linington was a member, Messrs. Wray and Sons, and Messrs. Upward and Rich were represented. The Vicar (the Rev. L. J. D. Wheatley) paid tribute to Mr. Linington's work.

Messrs. O. C. Hamilton and Son made the arrangements. The family wish to thank Dr. Sandiford for his great kindness and attention; also all friends for inquiries and letters. Please accept this as the only intimation.
