Obituary Notice.—In our obituary notice of Saturday last was announced the demise of Mr. James Locke, of Cross-lanes, at the ripe age of 95. A gentleman residing in the neighbourhood of Cross-lanes was our informant as to the age and place of birth—Owslebury, near Winchester, he having procured the parish register of deceased's baptism, but deceased used to relate the story of his walking four miles to church to be christened on the day that he was about four years old. The following particulars have been forwarded to us by a member of deceased's family:--"James Locke, born at Bishop's Waltham, 16th June, 1773; married at St. Thomas's Church, Newport, I.W., about the year 1802. Died at Cross-lanes, Newport, April 1st, 1873 aged 99 years, leaving a widow aged 93 years. Were born to him eleven children, fifty-six grandchildren, and ninety-five great grandchildren. Buried at St. Paul's, Barton, April 7th. Carried to the grave by the grandsons".
